

A NONPARTISAN initiative to engage young people in the electoral process through art

About Us: ATV is a national art challenge created by artists and young civic activists in collaboration with Energizing Young Voters and Vote by Design to motivate and mobilize young people (ages 17 – 29) to register and vote in every election: local, state and federal.

CALL FOR ART

Young people (ages 17 – 29) are invited to enter a National Juried Art Challenge to win prizes, national exposure, online visibility, and broad distribution through organizations working year-round to register new voters across the country.

Two Categories: ARTCARDS and STICKERS

Deadline for all entries: July 1, 2024.

Winners Announced: August 15, 2024.

ARTCARDS are small format cards (4x6) – digital or paper – that use graphic design as the primary means of expression. Maximum of 2 entries per artist.

STICKERS are a mini-canvas for conveying a compelling message seen for only a few brief moments. Maximum of 6 entries per artist.

Visit our website: <https://artthevote.org>

